

CCAC – Auction Rules

Purpose:

The Circle City Aquarium Club, here unto referred to as CCAC, means to provide an opportunity for hobbyists to buy and sell hobby related items in an open auction format. This is not only to provide a fun and open opportunity to transact business, but to promote growth within the club by allowing members to offer goods in a non-commercialized setting.

Auction Committee:

The Auction Committee shall consist of a chairperson(s) appointed by the board of directors. The duties will consist of auctioneering, providing a decision on any rules challenge, promotion, registration and general administrative duties in relation to the auction.
